JANUARY, 1902.

Dorchester:
On the Friday a Musical and Dramatic Entertainment was given in aid of the fund for defraying the debt on the Village Lighting. The programme included Songs by Messrs. J. A. Chapman, Miss Mary Chapman, Hon. Mrs. Sotheyby; Violin Solos by Rev. O. Pickard Cambridge; a very amusing dialogue, called "A Double Arrangement," by Hon. C. Spring Rice and Miss Lane; and a farce, "The Silent Woman," by the Messrs. and Miss Chapman. The audience was a large one, and judging by the applause, the whole performance was greatly appreciated. The proceeds, after paying expenses, realized £15s. 15d. for the fund.

It is very satisfactory that the Flower Show has come out so well in spite of a small decrease in the subscriptions. In a year when the weather was gloriously fine of course the gate money should be good, but this would not have sufficed had it not been for the energy and skill of the Secretaries, Mr. Bugby and Mr. Jenkins, in husbanding resources and keeping down expenditure. Our warm thanks are due to them. The balance in hand may be required for the proverbial "rainy day," yet to come.

KINGSTON.

CHURCH SERVICES:
Sundays, 11 a.m. and 6 p.m.
Children's Service, 2-30 p.m.

HOLY COMMUNION:
January 5th, at midday.
" 19th, at 8-30 a.m.

CHRISTMAS.
In spite of the absence of hollyberries this year, the Church looked very pretty, and our thanks are due to all who helped to decorate.
The Christmas-Day Services were very well attended. In the evening some carols were sung after service.

NEW STOVE.
The new stove arrived unexpectedly on Christmas-Eve, and as the old stove had been lighted to warm the Church for the decorators, the work of getting it into place was made more difficult, but it was safely accomplished by midday. It is a decided improvement upon the old one, as it burns far less coke and gives a great deal more heat. The old one was in a very bad state, and was really dangerous. It has been sold for 10/- as old iron.
The Rev. W. Farrer very kindly sent £1 1/- towards the cost of the new stove.
It is very satisfactory that through the help of friends and the jumble sale we have been able to re-heat the Church without asking for any help from the congregation.

DAY SCHOOL.

_Examination in Religious Knowledge._

The Diocesan Inspector reports:—

"On the whole this School has done fairly well. The children are not quite up to their usual standard. The Infants answered very nicely. Merit cards are awarded to Charles Vincent, Arthur Neal, and Edith Miller.

"(Signed) J. E. HAWKSLEY,

Dio. Inspt."

Miss Jane Arnold has been appointed Mistress in the school, under Art. 68, in the place of Mrs. Thorne.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The following have gained prizes:—

Class I. _Girls._ A. Neal, N. Applin, E. Marsh, D. Miller,

M. Sansom, K. Arnold, O. Stroud.

Class II. _Girls._ A. Brierly, M. Bartlett, L. Neal, E. Burt,

A. Arnold, G. Arnold.

Class I. _Boys._ H. White, P. Miller, F. Bartlett.

Class II. _Boys._ W. Miller, P. White, W. Marsh, A. Neal.

The Treat was held on Friday, December 27th. The older children were taken to an entertainment at Bere Regis, and tea was given in the schoolroom afterwards.

We must thank J. C. Mansel Pleydell, Esq., Rev. R. Askew, Mrs. Stacey, and Mrs. Rogers, for kind help towards the prizes and treat.

It is satisfactory to be able to report that though our numbers have decreased considerably since last year, yet more prizes have been won. If we cannot have quantity we must be thankful that we have quality. Our thanks are due to our teachers for their regular attendance and careful teaching.

BOOT CLUB.

Twenty-six children paid in during 1901, and those who attended most regularly have received an order for boots of the value of 5/-

COAL CLUB.

Money will be received at the School every Tuesday at 12 o'clock, commencing January 7th.

No one may join after the first Tuesday in May, and all the money must be paid by October 31st.

The members received 9½ cwt. a piece in 1901.

BAPTISM.—December 29th, Alan Stanley, son of George and Flora Keynes.

BURIALS.—December 3rd, (at Bloxworth) Charles Bartlett, aged 73.

" 4th, Rose Miller, aged 30.
