Choir Excursion.
We went this year on July 17, almost the last of the fine days, to the Larmer Tree Grounds, near Tollard Royal. Some of us were glad to avoid Bournemouth this year, where so much of our entertainment was associated with the kindness of our dear friend Mr. G. Hibbs. At the Larmer Grounds, which are pleasantly laid out, there is every facility for amusement—cricket, skittles, swinging, and the like. The name, as to the meaning of which there is some doubt, is supposed to indicate the boundary between the two counties. A pretty half-hour's walk enabled us to visit the ancient church of Tollard Royal and "King John's House," interestingly fitted up as a museum and picture gallery. Every one we believe greatly enjoyed the outing.

MISSIONARY MEETING.
On Monday, August 17th, we hope to hold meetings for children and adults, when addresses will be given by Deaconess Julia, late missionary at Delhi. Weather permitting, the meetings will take place in the Vicarage Garden.

If the Voluntary Rate had been paid by every one nearly £13 more would have been secured. In future the school rate will be collected by the County Council.

CHURCH OUTING.

The Choir, Sunday School, and many Members of the Congregation had an outing to Swanage on July 24th. Very fortunately, we had a perfectly fine day between two wet ones. In fact, the day could not have been better, as a nice cool breeze blew off the land and there was no dust. A start was made from home about 7-45 a.m., and Swanage was reached about 10-30. Dinner was eaten on the beach at 12-30, and tea in the Church Schools, kindly lent by the Rector of Swanage, at 4-30. During the afternoon nearly the whole party visited the Globe, the famous smuggler’s caves of Tilly-Whim, and the lighthouse. Home was reached about 9-30. It is most satisfactory to feel that everything went off so well and that all enjoyed themselves so thoroughly. Our best thanks are due to all those who helped by gifts of money or loan of conveyances, or both, also to the many willing helpers at dinner and tea. The only cause for regret is that several of our most regular worshippers were prevented by work or ill-health from joining the party.

BOYS’ ALLOTMENTS.

Mr. Huntley recently paid a visit to these plots, and expressed himself as very satisfied with their appearance.

BAPTISM.—July 19th, Gladys Lilian, daughter of William John and Fanny Maria Gertrude Jeans.
