ODDFELLOWS’ FETE.

There is to be a grand Fête given by the Oddfellows and Foresters on July 13,—a service in Church, a dinner, and sports in the afternoon. We trust the glorious weather we have lately had may favour us then. The Vicar is most sincerely sorry that he cannot be present, but he has left the parish in good hands. It is very kind of Captain Palmes consenting to take the chair at the dinner.

CHOIR TREAT.

We had superb weather for the Choir expedition to Bournemouth on June 3rd. Instead of travelling, as heretofore, in drays, we went by private conveyances to Wareham, then by train to Poole, and by the electric trams to Bournemouth—a new mode of transit to some of the younger members—thereby saving expense, and we believe securing greater enjoyment. The Tregonwell Arms, as always, provided us with excellent refreshment. It was difficult to think of a choir outing to Bournemouth without our dear Mr. Hibbs, but Mr. Ball kindly threw himself into the breach, and stood us the sea excursion to Swanage. The race on the sea was won by Percy Battrick. We have to thank Mr. Bedford and Mr. Kellaway for kindly providing the conveyances to and from Wareham, free of charge.

ADDRESS TO COMMUNICANTS.

We were favoured on Thursday, June 16, with a visit by Canon (late Archdeacon) Sowter, who gave a very stirring address on the subject of the Holy Communion, to a numerous congregation. It was gratifying that so many were able to attend in spite of the exigencies of haymaking. The somewhat threatening aspect of the skies compelled us to hold the tea in the Hall instead of the Vicarage garden. It is earnestly hoped that these gatherings will put heart in the body of the Communicants, and constrain those who do not come to the Holy Table to consider how great their own loss is and what injury they are inflicting on the Church.
