THE BERE READING ROOM

A meeting of the Committee was held on January 15th, to discuss future arrangements with regard to the Hall. The main resolutions arrived at were as follows:

1.—That the Vicar should ask to have the lease transferred to his name on behalf of the Reading Room Committee.

2.—That the Caretaker should have a small increase in his salary, which should be held to cover extra work entailed by entertainments, etc.

3.—That the rent payable for use of the room should be as follows:

In future all applications for use of the Hall and all payments in respect of such use must be made to the Vicar. Payments should be made in advance.

The Committee passed a cordial vote of thanks to Mr. Sotheby for his interest in the Hall.

CHURCH MATTERS.

We are printing the Church Collections during the past month together with such outings as there have been. This course we propose to adopt so that those who contribute to the Church Collections may be able to see exactly what becomes of the money they place in the bag. We are also publishing a list of those who subscribed to the Ringers’ Xmas Box. The Bere Ringers had £9 to divide among them and the Kingston Ringers £3 16s. The Ringers’ supper took place at the Vicarage on January 18th, to which date it was postponed as the last day of 1905 fell on a Sunday. The Kingston party were kept away by the very rough weather that unfortunately prevailed, they did their best to procure a conveyance but as they could not get one their places were empty at the supper table. After supper a couple of hours was pleasantly whiled away with music.

OBITUARY.

The sad and sudden death of Mr. Henry House has been a great shock, and one, which those who knew him will never forget. Mr. House had too many relatives and was too well known among us to make any remarks about his life necessary, it needs only to be recorded that a real and genuine sympathy is felt for his relatives and particularly for his widow. She has we trust found some strength and support in her great trial from the earnest sympathy that her bereavement has called forth.

LIST OF SUBSCRIBERS TO RINGERS’ FUND.
