Saturday, April 10th.
Mattins and Ante-Communion 8-45 a.m.

We are making a change in the services for Good Friday morning. The Ante-Communion Service will be separated from Morning Prayer, being read at an earlier hour.

The Morning Service will be followed by a short series of addresses interspersed with hymns and prayers and will last until 12-30 or rather later. Some of the congregation will be unable to remain throughout; these can leave the Church during the singing of one of the hymns.

EASTER DAY.

Holy Communion 7-0 and 8-0 a.m.
Morning Prayer and Litany 10-0 a.m.
Choral Communion and Sermon 11-30.
No Sunday School in the afternoon.
Evensong and Sermon 6-0.

The Choral Communion Service at 11-30 will be arranged as nearly as possible after the pattern of the Service held at the close of the Mission. It will begin with Baden Powell’s well known Easter Processional, “Hail Festal Day,” and end with the Easter hymn, “Jesus Christ is risen today,” which will be sung at the close of the Service after the Blessing.

THE EASTER VESTRY

will be held at the Vicarage on Tuesday evening, April 13th, at 8 p.m.

Besides the usual business the Vicar will draw attention to a matter connected with the Church Finance. The Easter rate pays certain of the Church expenses, such as the clerk’s salary, the winding of the clock, ringing of the curfew, and so on. But last Easter there was no balance left in the Churchwardens’ hands to meet these expenses as they gradually accrued during the year. The consequence is that the people’s warden is considerably out of pocket at the present moment. He has been advancing money since last Easter. The voluntary rate will, we trust, recoup him, but then these disbursements will only start again. At the Vestry more exact particulars will be placed before the parishioners, who will be asked to discuss the matter with a view to putting it on a proper basis.

THE SERVICES DURING LENT.

The weather has been most unfortunate. On the first day that Mr. Lee was to have preached here it snowed so heavily that he got no farther than Milton Abbas, and each subsequent evening, for which a service has been fixed, the rain has fallen in torrents. The congregations have been very fair notwithstanding, and we are grateful to Mr. Lee for his visits. We hope to see him again sometime when he may have a larger body of hearers.

BURLALS.

March 4.—Elizabeth Holland White, aged 83 years.
5.—Henry Bartlett, aged 76 years.

WOMEN'S WORKING PARTY.

We are hoping to have a Sale of Work in the Parsonage Garden after Easter to raise funds for an Oak Screen to the Vestry. The present curtain being most unsuitable. Mrs. Burgess and Mrs. Edward Cave have kindly offered to take a Provision Stall. Other arrangements to follow.

Many thanks are due to Mrs. Stacey for her kind help and work, and to all the members who have worked hard through the winter afternoons.

We have to record the gift by Mrs. Stacey of a pair of Steps and a Door Rest for the Church.

We give grateful thanks to Lady Scott and her band of Church Cleaners for the good work done.

READING ROOM.

A Whist Tournament has been in progress lately and has proved to be of great general interest. It was organized by Mr. Berry and Mr. Arthur House. Two prizes (match stands) were given—one by Lady Scott and the other by Mr. Berry and Mr. House. The final proved most exciting, George Ward and Walter Thomas being the winners. Hearty cheers were given for the winners. For Lady Scott (who specially attended to hand the prizes to the winners), Sir Douglas, Mr. Arthur House and Mr. Berry.

We must record our grateful thanks to those who have made gifts to the room—Mrs. Stacey, Mr. Arthur House, Mr. Berry, and Mr. Reeves.
