CENTRAL CHURCH FINANCE.

We hope that something will be done during the present month to get the scheme in this parish well under weigh. At a Sidesmen's Meeting held towards the end of last month, certain very helpful suggestions were made, which were left to a Sub-Committee, composed of Mr. Bullen, Mr. Bedford, and the Vicar to carry out. Each house occupied by Churchmen will be visited, and a subscription will be invited, also a Public Meeting was arranged. We have every confidence that the scheme will be well taken up, and that it will promote interest in Church matters in the parish. In the Diocese of Peterborough the parishes that have taken the scheme up have already responded to the extent of 10% beyond what was asked of them! We do not know what has been done in our Deanery, and at any rate the last thing Bere Regis wants is to wait to see what others are doing. We do not like the idea of being the tail when as the largest parish we ought to be the head, nor have we any kind of sympathy with the narrow-minded and mean-spirited people, who do not feel any call to help outside their own parish. The one is unworthy of an Englishman, and the other of a Churchman, and both are unworthy of an English Churchman. A band of collectors will be needed—who will volunteer?—one volunteer is worth a dozen pressed men! We should very much like the whole collection to be none by MEN—that is perhaps too much to hope! The ladies in the parish are doing most of the Church work. This is the men's chance, let them not be backward in coming forward.

CHOIR OUTING.

The adult members of the Choir made an excursion to London on October 6th. The day did not promise well, there being a good deal of rain on the way to the station, but as the train neared its destination, the observant excursionists noticed that the washing was out to dry—it was Monday—and this was considered ominous of a fine day, and a very fine day it proved to be. The party went to Westminster Abbey, and through streets and parks for an hour or so, and then took motor busses to the Zoological Gardens, where we first had tea, and then watched the other animals feed. From the Zoo we walked to the Holborn Restaurant, where dinner was taken, after which the evening was spent at the London Hippodrome. It would have been difficult to make a pleasanter use of twelve hours in the metropolis, and the Choir do not mind if they repeat the programme, even at the cost of driving home from Warcham between 3 and 4 a.m. in a deluge.

THE HARVEST FESTIVAL

took place on October 1st. The Church was very prettily decorated, mostly with corn and marguerites. The Service was very hearty. The choir sang well. The Canticles being Walmesley in C and the anthem—"O Taste and See," by Goss. These were repeated on the following Sunday, when there was a larger congregation than at the Festival itself. This suggested the thought that it might be wise to hold the Festival on a Sunday instead of a week day. But it would be impossible to get a clergyman from another parish to come and preach in this case, and that is certainly a great objection to the change. Our preacher was Mr. Cyril Kindersley, of Clyffe and Colehill, whom we thank for his visit.

WINTERBOURNE KINGSTON.

During the last month, the village has had an unwelcome visitor, the measles, which came however in the mildest form possible, so although the School has had to be closed temporarily, I am glad to say nearly all the invalids are well again, and there are no fresh cases. This break was unfortunate coming so soon after the holidays, but I trust the children will make up for it by extra diligence now.

On October 17th, the long-talked of concert, proposed by Major Hall, and ably carried out by Mrs. Cave, assisted by Miss Burgess, took place, and was most enjoyable and successful. The programme was long and varied, and all the items were enthusiastically encored. A very bright and amusing duologue, effectively rendered by Mrs. Cave, and Miss Burgess, gave great pleasure, as did also a pretty Dutch song, in costume, by the latter. Excellent help was also given by Miss Cave, Miss Tory, Miss Hames, Miss Walley, the Misses Bedford, and Miss Bemister, Mr. M. Tory, Mr. E. Tory, Mr. Profeit, and Mr. H. Johnson.

The proceeds are to be given towards providing a piano, for which I hope we shall find much use during the coming winter at our social gatherings.

I have not yet received any response to my request for fittings for the Boys' Room; anything however old, will be most gratefully received.
