My dear Friends,

If ye would hear the angels sing
Christian! see ye let each door
Stand wider than it e'er stood before,
On Christmas Day in the morning.

Advent Carol.

I am sure that it is true to say that all of us look forward to Christmas. Of course we look forward, in many different ways and some to the family gathering, some to the parties and festive activities, some to the sense of peace and rest which it brings. All these aspects of Christmas are enjoyable and joy is an essential ingredient of the Feast, but for those who think of Christmas as primarily the birthday of Jesus, there must be something more.

On the night of the Nativity the shepherds to whom the glad tidings were given were terror-struck until the angel was joined by a great company of the heavenly host, singing the praises of God;

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace among men with whom he is pleased.

It was after this song of praise that the shepherds were emboldened to go to Bethlehem to see this great thing for themselves, after which they wanted to share the Good News with the whole world.

If we approach Christmas with any trace of disillusionment or cynicism then it is surely time for us to listen, once again to the angels sing. For their song is for us and for all men and its message is clear. Open every door and keep them wide open. The doors of our minds, the doors of our compassion and most of all, the doors of our hearts must all be open to the astounding love of the Christ Child. If only every Christian man, woman or child would shed his doubts and shed forth the love of God what a Christmas this would be.

Never mind the tinsel, let us this year go in for the real thing!

To all of you and to your loved ones I wish a happy and a blessed Christmas.

Yours very sincerely,

DENIS SHAW.

Notes from the Vicarage

The Archdeacon of Dorset, the Venerable Richard Sharp, is a good friend to our parish as well as being the senior clerical administrator for the area. A visit from him, therefore, is a great occasion and he is to be with us on Sunday 4th December for our family Communion at 9.45 a.m. Let us be in Church in great numbers to greet him.

Carol Services at Christmas-tide are usually many and various. May I draw your attention to three in our own parish:

- Sunday 11th Dec. at 3 p.m. in Church - Brownies Carol Service.
- Sunday 18th Dec. at 6 p.m. in Church - Parish Carol Service.
- Tuesday 20th Dec. at 7 p.m. in the Primary School - School Carol Service.

Christmas Services are announced in the list for December but so that there may be no doubt I give details below:

Christmas Eve: 3.00 p.m. Blessing of the Crib to which all children are especially invited. 11.45 p.m. Midnight Mass which will be a SAID Service with hymns.

Christmas Day: 8.00 a.m. Holy Communion. 11.00 a.m. Matins (to which children may like to bring their favourite toy to be blessed) 12 noon Holy Communion. 6.00 p.m. Evensong (SAID).

If you know of any sick or infirm people who would like their Christmas Communion in their own homes I should be most grateful to have their names.

Installation at Salisbury Cathedral. I was most grateful for the splendid support I received from this parish on 20th October when I was installed as Canon of Salisbury Cathedral. It was a lovely and moving service and a great occasion for my wife and myself.

The Church Clock at the time of writing, is out of action but it is all in a good cause since work is going on to provide an electrical means of winding which should last for many years to come. We are most grateful to Major Geoffrey Booth and his team of helpers for all their great efforts.

THE MOTHERS' UNION.

Two inspiring services in one day - the first in the afternoon of the 2nd November in Sherborne Abbey when 73 banners were paraded and every seat was taken; the second, the service of Holy Communion for our branch in St. John's Church in the evening.

Our meeting for December is on the 7th. when members are asked to bring a mince pie. Mr. Fred Pittfield will be reading a ghost story, which he has written specially for the occasion, and the evening will end with the singing of Christmas carols.

The M.U. Prayer Group will meet at 11 a.m. in the Morton Chapel on the 16th and 30th December.

Doreen Shaw.

MUSIC IN BERE REGIS.

Our Michaelmas Concert held in the Church on September 23rd was a musical success and much enjoyed by our audience and visiting musicians.

We would have liked to have seen more local people in the audience and we hope that there will be more support for two important events in the New Year. The Wimborne Minster Choir will be singing evening one evening, and the Blansford Rural Music School Orchestra will be giving a concert. More details in next month's magazine.
