THE VICAR’S LETTER

My dear Friends,

“I want you to grasp God’s secret. That secret is Christ himself; in him lie hidden all God’s treasures of wisdom and knowledge.” (Colossians 2:3)

By the time this letter comes before you the Season of Lent will have already begun. As you will have read in the magazine for February our Lenten Study is based upon a series of recorded talks which have as their general title “The Secret of Christ.” Those of you who have decided to join in these discussions will, by now, have some idea of their aim and content and will, I hope, be some distance along the road which ends in the revealing of God’s secret and as St. Paul told his friends at Colossae, “that secret is Christ himself.”

Surely, to discover a secret is something which must appeal to the natural curiosity of most of us. The enduring popularity of mystery and detective stories bears witness to this fact. Is it not, therefore, surprising that so many people who have this natural and commendable curiosity still appear to be as much in the dark concerning the nature of God as those men of Athens referred to by St. Paul who set up an altar bearing the inscription “To an Unknown God.” It is surprising because this secret of which we have been thinking is no closely guarded mystery but is, in fact, an open secret waiting to be discovered by anyone who takes the trouble to seek diligently.

The journey of discovery involves getting to know someone well. To do this we must seek him out, bear him company on the way and listen to what he has to say to us. Sometimes the going may be difficult but amazingly this travelling companion is more than willing to help us over the rough places, and even to carry our burdens for us. It is a journey which countless others have found to be worth all the effort involved, because the person whose friendship they are seeking is anxious to share with them a precious secret. This secret is God’s own secret, and it is a glorious fact that when we gain the friendship of our travelling companion we discover that he himself is that secret, for in Christ himself lie hidden all God’s treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

To get to know Christ, then, becomes the infinitely worthwhile object of our Lenten exercise. To travel with him along the road which leads to Calvary, is to see eternal love in action. It certainly will involve us in sharing in the incredible sacrifice of the Cross, but if we can go that far we shall just as certainly see through the darkness, the shining dawn of Easter. Then we shall know that he whose secret we have discovered has the Key to Eternal Life, and that means the Key to God himself, for he who has seen him, has seen the Father also.

Yours very sincerely,

DENIS SHAW.

THE MOTHERS' UNION

We had a very lively and thought-provoking evening on the 6th February when the Rev. Alan Gill first talked to us about the Church's attitude to marriage and then divided us into four groups for discussion. We were so pleased that his wife, Marjorie, who is our Deeney Chairman was able to come with him.

Our next meeting is on the 5th March and starts in church with a Corporate Communion Service taken by the Vicar, during which he will give us a Lenten message. There will be tea and a time for talking together at the Vicarage after the service.

On Tuesday, 25th March, there will be a celebration of Holy Communion in the evening at the parish church in Blandford, to which all M.U. members in the deanery are invited. Further details will be given at our next branch meeting on the 5th March.

The prayer group will meet on Fridays, 14th and 28th March at 11 a.m. in the Morton Chapel.

Doreen Shaw.

WOMEN'S WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

Our local service for the Women's World Day of Prayer for this year will take place on Friday, March 7th at 2.45 p.m. at the United Reformed Church in Puddletown. The theme is Responsible Freedom and the service has been prepared from a basic draft written by a group of Christian women in Thailand.

The speaker will be Mrs. Gordon Harman and all women are welcome at this service. Tea will be served in the schoolroom afterwards.

Anyone requiring transport, who has not already done so, should apply either to Mrs. Gooch at Sitterton Farmhouse or to Mrs. Shaw at the Vicarage.

MAGAZINE EDITOR: Mrs. P. M. Bloomfield, 7 Boswell's Close, Bere Regis.
Tel: Bere Regis 581.
Will you please continue to let me have all matter for the Magazine not later than the 15th of each month.

MISS RACHEL L. MURRAY. To those of you who knew Miss Murray when she lived at "Woodburyside", Bere Regis, and to all of you who have enjoyed her Poems which I have put in our Magazine from time to time, I am happy to tell you that she is recovering from an operation and is now home.

GRACE

We thank Thee for the sky so blue,
And for the grass so green,
For ev'ry glistening drop of dew,
And for Thyself, unseen.
We thank Thee for Thy loving care,
That keeps us from all ill,
And for Thy gentle warning, "Beware,
Look far beyond the hill,
And hear My Voice directing thee,
Always, to do My Will."
In Thee we find our every need,
Supplied, and only ask of Thee,
That, in thought and word and deed,
We may Thy pleasure see.

RACHEL L. MURRAY.

Miss Murray wishes to thank the Surgeon and all the kind staff at the Dorchester Hospital, also Canon and Mrs. Shaw and friends who visited her there. A further Thank you to all the kind friends who sent "Get Well" cards and letters.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION WOMEN'S SECTION held their monthly meeting on 16th January at H.Q., 21 members being present. All members enjoyed slides on the making of the film "Far from the Madding Crowd" which were shown by Mrs. Stone. A vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Davidge. A "Bring & Buy" stall was run by Miss Green. Teas were served by Mrs. Snook, Mrs. Presslee and Mrs. Cleat. J.C.

COFFEE MORNING

A coffee morning in aid of the Imperial Cancer Research Fund will be held on Wednesday March 12th at 10.30 a.m. By kind permission of Brig. and Mrs. Tadman, it will again be held at Summerrods. There will be a Cooks’ Table, Bring and Buy and a Raffle. This is the “third anniversary” of this very successful event, and I’m sure we can all remember the magnificent display, particularly of tempting delicacies of every description on the Cooks’ Table, seen at the two previous coffee mornings.

Do please come and give the event your support.

In expressing general thanks to everyone who had supported last year’s fund raising,

I omitted to give a special mention to everyone who holds a collecting box throughout the year. The collecting boxes made a very significant addition to the funds, just by people’s kindness in displaying them in prominent places in their shops, offices or homes. Thank you to everyone who held one. If anyone else would like a collecting box, the Group’s Treasurer, Mr. Shelton (tel. Bere Regis 684) has some.

PARISH COUNCIL  BERE REGIS

TRAFFIC ON RYE HILL. The Parish Council is very concerned about traffic speeding down Rye Hill, and potentially dangerous conditions for children attending Bere Regis Primary School and parents taking them to and from School. In order to persuade Authority to take action to improve matters (e.g. to extend the speed limit area), it would be helpful if members of the public could report any case of fast, or dangerous, driving to the Chairman or any member of the Parish Council.

DORSET VILLAGE VENTURES. The Dorset Community Council are organising another inter-village competition of which full information can be read on Bere Regis Post Office Notice Board. Any local organisation or person interested is invited to direct further enquiries to:

Ian Scott, Community Initiative Officer,
Dorset Community Council,
57 High West Street,
DORCHESTER.
Dorset. DT1 1UT.
(Telephone: Dorchester 2270).

BERE REGIS FLORAL GROUP. At the next meeting on Tuesday, 11th March, Mrs. Herridge and Mrs. Cross will give a demonstration of Flower Arranging.

PLAYGROUP. The Playgroup will be open on Monday, Wednesday, Friday from 25th February with a total of 24 children attending. Several mothers are taking a very active part in helping the two supervisors but we still ask for parents’ co-operation in setting out and putting away the equipment.

BERE REGIS & DISTRICT SCOUT GROUP. Many thanks to all who supported the Scout Group entertainment both at Winterborne Kingston and Bere Regis. Both Scouts and Cubs require assistance in their week by week running of the Packs. Anyone interested in helping should contact any Scout or Cub Leader or Committee Member who will be pleased to supply any further information, or Ring Bere Regis 469. Please support our Barn Dance on Saturday 29th March.

BERE REGIS WIVES GROUP

A very pleasant evening was spent on the 12th February, when we held a Valentine Party. Refreshments were provided by the members and the hostesses were Mrs. S. Skinner and Mrs. D. Phillips. The cup competition for the best Valentine card was won by Mrs. J. Peary. Raffle prizes were won by Mrs. A. Ives and Mrs. M. Frampton.

The speaker for the 11th March is to be Mr. Orchard, who is going to show a film entitled Purbeck Industries, and on the 25th Mrs. Barnes is going to demonstrate decorating Easter Eggs.

BERE REGIS AND DISTRICT YOUTH CLUB

The Chairman of the Management Committee welcomed about 60 people at the Youth Club on the evening of the 19th January. Dr. Benjafeld, President, presented a black leather briefcase to Mr. Ray Seymour in recognition of his work for the Youth Club over the past 16 years. Mr. K. Perkins, Area Youth Officer gave Mrs. Seymour a brooch and expressed thanks to her for her help and support. Mr. Frank Watkin Dorset Association also thanked Mr. Seymour for his services to the Bere Regis Youth Club. Mr. Seymour thanked everyone who had contributed to this gift and also for all the support they had given him while leader of the Youth Club.

AUTUMN LEAVES OVER 60s. A very enjoyable afternoon was had when we had a very interesting speaker, Mrs. Jury, who spoke of “The Queens of England” and illustrated her talk with beautifully dressed dolls. There were at least 30 dressed in the style of the Queens. Mrs. Brook gave a vote of thanks and presented her with a bouquet. Tea was served and a raffle drawn. In all, a most enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Jeeses introduced 5 new members and wished them, and the other 5 members, every happiness with the Autumn Leaves. Our membership is now 20. Anyone who wishes to join, please come along. So long as one partner is over 60, both may join.

Our next meeting is Wednesday 12th March, 2.30 p.m. Drax Hall when the speaker is an American talking about villages in America and illustrating it with slides. Mrs. Jeeses had a surprise for the members. The Concert Party “The Gadabouts” had now performed their 17th Show and last week received the sum of £8. Also, she read a letter from the Rotarians, thanking them for the wonderful show they had given for their New Year Party to the Over 60s and Disabled and presented the Treasurer with a cheque for £25 from the Rotarians. A Coffee Evening will be held at the Drax Hall on 20th March when “The Best of the Gadabouts” will be performed by popular request. Tickets will be 25p including coffee etc. commencing 7.30 p.m.

PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING

At the meeting of the Council held on 7th February the Treasurer forecast a much reduced surplus on the annual accounts, owing to the additional expenditure on the church repairs. Possible future repair work to the organ was discussed, and further allowance for this expenditure would have to be made. It is hoped that the fund raising programme for the next year will include a summer fete, a gift day, and possibly two coffee mornings.

Progress with the scheme for renewal of the hossacks was reported, a part made example being shown. It was intended to have the work completed by Autumn 1981, if possible a special service would be arranged, with our Suffragin Bishop preaching and blessing the hossacks.

HORTICULTURAL SHOW 1980

The Horticultural show which will be held on Saturday 2nd August this year, will carry two special features.
1. Photographic Competition. All ages, for which a new camera will be first prize.

Details of these competitions will appear in the Show Schedule of April. N.A.R.

WASTE PAPER

Supplies of waste paper have fallen off considerably in the last few months, one reason being the difficulty of remembering collection days. We shall be calling on Thursday, 13th and 27th March or a call to Bere Regis 602 will bring Mr. Reed to make a special collection. N.A.R.

FROM THE PARISH REGISTER

Burial: On Friday, 8th February, 1980 at St. Laurence, Affpuddle, followed by cremation at Weymouth:
Alfred Charles Perkins of Briantspuddle aged 89 years.

IN MEMORIAM:

Charles Perkins was born at Milton Abbas, one of six children. His father was head gardener at Milton Abbey in the days when it was a great private estate. Charles went to the village school at Milton Abbas, and when he left he was apprenticed to carpentry with Messrs. Watts of Dorchester. Soon after the First World War, Charles Perkins came to Briantspuddle to work as a carpenter for Sir Ernest Debenham, and when he married came to live in the cottage at Briantspuddle, where he spent the rest of his long life. The couple had one son who lived until he was 18. After the estate was broken up Charles Perkins continued to work in the Carpenter’s shop, where his craftsmanship and skill were much in demand. When his sight began to fail Charles taught himself to continue his carpentry, cleverly adapting tools for use when he should be totally blind, as he was for some 25 years. In spite of his handicap Mr. Perkins was a great gardener, and his garden stood comparison with any sighted person’s. He was by no means daunted by his disability and remained a happy man with a great sense of humour. He loved to listen to the radio and was a close follower of cricket and football.

He was a great Christian soul, who will be sadly missed by his many friends but his example of courage and fortitude must remain an example to us all. Our love and sympathy go out to Mrs. Perkins who cared for him so devotedly.
