THE VICAR’S LETTER

My dear Friends,

"Jesus said, in the world you have tribulation; but be of good cheer. I have overcome the world.”
St. John 16:33.

At the time of issuing this warning, Jesus was trying to prepare his disciples for the troubles that lay ahead of them. The storm-clouds were gathering, he himself would soon be arrested and done to death and the disciples would be in fear of their lives. All the lights seemed to be going out, and yet even as he uttered those solemn words Jesus was encouraging his followers not to give up hope. "I have overcome the world" he said, and we know that his words were true.

We too live in troublous times. Violence and sudden death seem to occupy our television screen and fill our newspapers. At the time of writing those words we have heard, with horror and revulsion about the attempt to assassinate that holy man Pope John Paul II. The apparently endless toll of murder and counter-murder is reported daily from Northern Ireland. It seems that neither public figures nor private citizens are safe any longer. Tribulation in many forms certainly stalks our world.

Yet we shall do well to keep matters in perspective. This world is a violent place and human nature, without proper direction, lends itself all too readily to ungovernable outbreaks of passion. But Christian people should not give way to despondency and fear. We are still living in the light of Easter when Christ, once and for all, overcame the world and death itself. We cannot and should not be complacent in the face of evil. Life is for living and the way is hard, and often dangerous, as it was for Jesus himself. Yet he overcame and in his strength we can do the same. So “Life up your hearts” and remember the promise “He that overcometh shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he will be my son.”

Yours sincerely,
DENIS SHAW.

NOTES FROM THE VICARAGE

CONFIRMATION 1981. The Confirmation service held at the Affpuddle Church on Sunday 10th May was a joy and inspiration to all. Fourteen young candidates and one adult were presented to Bishop David Maddock, who gave a splendid address with words of encouragement both to the candidates, and to the older members of the larger congregation. It is a matter of great thankfulness that the welfare of all the candidates has been undertaken by dedicated lay-people. Those responsible will be Mrs. Brenda Pifffield, and Mrs. Margaret Shelton to whom we are most grateful.

IN MEMORIAM
FRANK JOINER
Mr. Frank Joiner was born at Warren Farm Bere Regis in 1888. Attended Bere Heath School, and Bere Heath Chapel. Married Miss Mary Rose Lightfoot in Bere Regis Church, and afterwards moved to Ringwood, where he worked as groom to Mr. Maurice Radcliffe, having a lifelong love and interest for horses.

Throughout the first world war he served in the Royal Berkshire Regiment in France and Belgium. After the war he moved to Wiltshire, and returned to live in this Parish in 1932, working for the Forestry Commission, and at Boxgrove Camp using his motor cycle for transport, which he continued to ride until his 80th birthday.

After his retirement he was a very keen gardener until shortly before his illness. He was also a lifelong member of the local branch of the Ancient Order of Foresters Court Prospect.

KEITH JOSEPH HAVELOCK HUDSON
Keith Hudson was born some 30 years ago, and when he was old enough went to a Preparatory School at Bromley in Kent. Later he attended the Colston School, Bristol, where he excelled in every kind of sport, whether it was Field Events or Organised Games. He was an exceedingly popular boy with both his fellows, and with his staff, and indeed his schooldays were a very happy time for him. His love for outdoor pursuits developed then, continued throughout his life. He was a keen fisherman, and an acute observer of all forms of wild life, and his knowledge of Natural History was considerable.

At the same time Keith loved family life, and home pursuits, and was never happier than when he was simply enjoying his home. He had a loving disposition, and his gentleness made him many friends all of whom mourn his early passing.

His family, who knew him best, mourn him most, and to them at this time of sorrow, we offer our deep sympathy, and our love.

NOTICES
Jean Hudson and her son Peter wish to thank everyone in the village for their help and sympathy in their recent sorrow.

The family of the late Mr. Frank Joiner wish to express their sincere thanks to all the greatly valued friends, and neighbours who sent letters, cards, memorial donations, and kind messages of sympathy in their bereavement, also to all who attended the funeral service.

MR. TOM WOOLFRIES has for many years cared for the Bere Regis churchyard, opened and closed the church every day and, whenever the occasion arose, has raised the flag on the church tower. In addition to all these duties he has regularly rung the church bells, and seen to their maintenance. Mr. Woolfries has performed all those tasks with care, and with love so that the churchyard in particular with its great area of grass, and beautifully clipped yew trees has become something to marvel at.

The time has now come for Mr. Woolfries to ease up somewhat. He is still very active, and hopes to remain so for many years to come, but he must be relieved of his crushing load of work. He has, therefore, asked us to accept his partial resignation which we have done with great reluctance.

The debt we owe to Mr. Tom Woolfries is immeasurable, and at a later date we shall look forward to making some tangible acknowledgement. Meanwhile, we can only offer him our heartfelt thanks for all his wonderful work, and for just being himself. We wish him and his wife every happiness in their retirement.

MR. MARVIN PITFIELD has very kindly undertaken to look after the churchyard in succession to Mr. Tom Woolfries. We are very grateful for his assistance.
