The Vicar's Letter

My dear Friends,

"Give honour unto Luke Evangelist; for he it was (the aged legends say) who first taught Art to fold her hands and pray."

Dante Gabriel Rossetti

As, once again, we approach St. Luke's tide our thought must naturally turn to the Beloved Physician himself. To St. Luke, as author of the Third Gospel and of the Acts of the Apostles we owe so much. His insight, and his unique knowledge have been made available to us through the printed word. To him we are indebted for the detailed narrative concerning the Nativity of our Lord, to him as a careful historian we owe the accurate dating of the events which he records. Yet, wonderful as these qualities are, there is an even greater blessing to be obtained by becoming closely acquainted with St. Luke. As a Gentile himself Luke wrote for all men irrespective of Race or Colour. In his universal gospel all barriers are down; Jesus Christ is for all men without distinction. Luke of all the gospel writers saw no limits to the love of God. Furthermore, the fact that he was a man of letters enabled him to express himself in language of such beauty that the sheer glory of God shines through his words. The phrase "praising God" occurs in Luke oftener than in all the rest of the New Testament put together. This praise reaches its peak in the three great hymns that... the Church has sung throughout all her generations. These are the Magnificat, the Benediction and the Nunc Dimittis.
Let us therefore give honour unto Luke Evangelist for from him we learn that all Beauty has its origin in God the Creator, and so we are enabled to give praise and thanks for the wonder of God’s plan for our redemption.
Yours very sincerely,
DENIS SHAW

been arranged for this year. It will consist of five sessions commencing on the

A NEW GUIDE TO THE BERE REGIS CHURCH was a crying need, but the preparation of one in these days is a very expensive business.
However, the Thomas Williams Educational Trust, which has been so generous to our Church over the years has once again come to our rescue. They have paid for a new edition, which has been compiled and illustrated by our resident historian Mr Fred Pitfield.
It is indeed a guide to be proud of, and we are pleased to be able to offer such a booklet to our many visitors, as well as to our parishioners. The cost per copy is 30p.
I have expressed our warmest thanks to the Trust for their great generosity.
The relatives of the LATE BETTY PERCY would like to thank everyone for their prayers, kindness and help during her illness.

FROM THE PARISH Registers

BURIALS:

Bere Regis: 26th August  Martin Crocker aged 17 years
            12th September William Hutton (Cremation Weymouth)
Affpuddle: 16th September John Middleton Massie

IN MEMORIAM

MARTIN CROCKER was born 17 years ago, a member of an old established farming family.
He attended school at the Primary School at Rye Hill, and later the Sandford and Purbeck Schools. He had considerable artistic ability, and was able to draw really well, obtaining many commendations. He had a great sense of humour, and lived light-heartedy, qualities which made him many friends. His natural ability with his hands made him successful in various hobbies involving the skilful handling of equipment, and he had of course driven a tractor from an early age. Recently he had been working as a plasterer and showed great promise in this highly skilled occupation. Nevertheless, it must be said that he was happiest with motor bikes, either riding them or tuning them, and it was, of course, on a motor bike that he met his untimely death. To his sorrowing parents we can only offer our love and sympathy in their present distress.
ANDREW LEE received fatal injuries in an accident that caused the death of Martin Crocker. He was also 17 years old, and attended the Purbeck School for some years. He was always skilful with his hands and after leaving school was keen to be trained as a fitter. However, after beginning his training, the firm for which he was working made him redundant, and he turned to forestry, and afterwards to farming work. Like Martin he had an overwhelming interest in motor-bikes, and was never happier than when he was doing something connected with them. Nevertheless, he was in many ways a quiet and gentle young man, and was especially good with children, of whom he was very fond. His tragic death from the injuries received in his accident came after a brave fight for life, which lasted for a fortnight. His many friends will mourn him, but to his family who will miss him most we offer our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

JOHN MIDDLETON MASSIE was a native of Braemar in Scotland and it was there that he went to school. Upon leaving school he worked for a time on the Royal Family’s Estates where his father was head forester. But at an early age he joined the Royal Navy serving throughout the last war as a leading seaman on H.M.S. Berwick and taking his discharge in 1962 from H.M.S. Warden.

For a time, after leaving the Navy, he worked for the Post Office as a van driver, but in 1967 he started training as a dairyman working for a while in Angus, and later in Essex before coming to this area in the early 70s. A disability resulting from his Naval service forced him to give up his dairy work and for a time he worked as a taxi-driver in the Dorchester district. For the past few years he has been employed as a storeman at Bovington Camp, where he was working until the day of his death.

Mr & Mrs Massie were married at Weymouth in 1948 and have one son, Trevor, who now lives in London. Mr Massie’s hobbies all centred round his home. He loved reading and listening to Country and Western music. He had many friends who will miss him very much but it is, of course, his wife and family who will miss him most. To them we extend our love and sympathy in their bereavement.

AFFPUDDLE NEWS

Please may I have items for inclusion in the magazine by 14th of the month.

AFFPUDDLE FAMILY SERVICE - 10.30 a.m. Sunday 16th October. The book of Acts tells us that the early Christian believers were "one in mind and heart" and shared a common life. Can we follow this model today? Should we even try? At this service we will hear, and hopefully experience, more on this theme. Do join us, for such sharing must at least start with our shared worship on a Sunday.

BRIANTSPUDDLE PLAYGROUP The Playgroup is open on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday mornings from 9.30 to 12 noon during school term time in the Village Hall, Briantspuddle. If you would like your child to join us, or would like to put his/her name on the waiting list either call in at the Playgroup on any of the above days, or ring the Playgroup Leader, Mrs Rowena Clemens (Bindon Abbey 462024) for more details and registration forms.

The summer swimming was most successfully organised. A very big thank you to all who helped especially the parents who co-ordinated the helpers and kept the pool clean and safe. Over £50 was raised which will go towards the running costs of the pool.

L.K.L. RECIPES FROM AROUND THE PARISH Mrs Joy Barrett, the wife of the Chairman, Bladen Social Club, has supplied this months recipe for Cock-a-Leekie Soup, just right for a warming winter meal. Boil a chicken carcass to extract as much flavour as possible. Strain and put stock back in pot. Add about 1 cup of long grain rice, several washed and chopped leeks, salt and pepper and simmer until rice is soft. Any small leftover pieces of chicken may be added as well as chopped parsley.

BERE REGIS NEWS

PARISH COUNCIL You will have read in the June magazine about the questionnaire which is to be sent out to each household in the Parish to discover what people would like for the future of the village. Now the holidays are over the questionnaire will be distributed within the next few weeks. Please co-operate by completing it as fully as possible so that a true expression of the needs of the village can be included in a village plan. This will be prepared from the answers to the questionnaire and will enable your Parish Council to press for what you want for Bere Regis.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE We shall have treasured memories of our 85th Anniversary Party, shared with the Friends and visitors who came along to join us. Firstly a garden party was held with food, drink and photographs. Then coffee and a special birthday cake made and iced exquisitely by Margaret Mauder and cut by Rosalie Andrews. Indoors we reminisced over the six decades with a lighthearted narrative read by Pat Mills. This was accompanied by appropriate music, song and dance. The Charleston and the 'live appearance' of the 'Beatles' and 'Lady Diana' were greatly appreciated. Our grateful thanks, especially to Pauline Jesty and Kathleen Jeeves and to everyone who made the celebration such a happy one. The W.I. will be running a produce stall at the October mini-market, proceeds in aid of the 'Lesotho Women & Water' project in Africa. Please support us in this venture. Hostesses for October Mrs Jesty & Mrs Balson.
AUTUMN LEAVES A very enjoyable luncheon was held at the Drax Hall for our 12th Birthday Anniversary - thanks to our hostesses and several helpers who produced a delicious lunch. Mrs Cecilia Lewis (Treasurer) gave the toast to the club and outlined all our activities during the past year. Mrs Jarvis (President) thanked the hostesses who play such an important part in the running of this very successful club and also to the members who entertained so many people with the Gadabouts concert party. She also thanked our many helpers and those from the village who give such generous donations. The toast was to the Hostesses, Helpers, Gadabouts and their supporters. We enjoyed a talk by Mrs Blackmore who told us about old Poole in the days when he was a boy - a most interesting and humorous talk. We then had tea and our birthday cake and three couples entered a Mrs & Mrs Quiz - quite hilarious.

Our next meeting is our last tour of 1983. On 12th October we shall have a very lovely trip around the Bulbarrow area with a cream tea at Milton Abbas - £2.00 inc. tea. Leaving 2.30 p.m. from the Drax Arms. List in the Butler's shop. Please let us know by the Monday before, October 10th, as we have to book the number of teas. Regrettably a concert by the Gadabouts planned for 15th October has had to be postponed.

K.J.

THE MOTHERS' UNION Mrs Sharpe's talk at our September meeting about Christian names was extremely interesting, informative and lively. The Deanery Coffee Morning in Blandford on the 15th September was well attended and was a very enjoyable and successful morning in every way. Our next branch meeting is on Wednesday 15th October at the Vicarage 7.30 p.m. when we are to have a talk given by a Sister from the House of Bethany. The Prayer Group will meet in the Morton Chapel at 11.00 a.m. on Fridays 14th and 28th October. On the 20th October our Central President, Mrs Hazel Treadgold, will be visiting Dorchester in the afternoon and Poole in the evening and we are hoping to hear her speak at one of these places. On Tuesday 25th October the Vicar will be taking a party of us round Salisbury Cathedral in the morning and at 12 noon we will be attending the Communion Service which takes place monthly in the M.U. Chapel in the Cathedral.
