CHILDREN AND WORSHIP
(PART TWO)

Last month the importance of FAMILY WORSHIP — worship for all of God's family — was emphasised. All who are baptised members of the Church have a duty to be regular in their attendance at Worship: from the youngest to the oldest.

So far, we have considered Babies in arms and crawling children, together with toddlers, and the practical considerations involved.

THIS MONTH we consider pre-school children and those slightly older: for pre-schoolers can learn and feel a lot about worship — and they can teach us a lot too!

"A small boy, on his way to Church for the first time, was being briefed by his big sister. 'They won't allow you to talk', she warned him, 'Who won't?' asked the boy. 'The Hushers'!"

With young children, take time to talk about the experience at home, to read Bible stories from good story books, to share some hymns and prayers. This will help children feel that they have a part in the worship of the family. There will obviously be times when they ask questions about what is happening: a whispered answer will increase understanding and the feeling of belonging (shushing them will probably only increase the volume of the question!) Also the questions may make us think — and that can't be bad! Explaining what will happen will also increase the sense of familiarity.

"I took my little girl to Church for the first time and as we knelt in the tall-sided pew she whispered: 'Who are we hiding from?'"

* Teach them to whisper — perhaps as a game at first
* Point out what is happening — the priest coming in, the preparation of the bread and wine, etc.
* Tell them about the 'special times' when they must be quiet, e.g. during the prayers 'when we share with God'
* Help them particularly in active things - putting the family offering in the collection bag, going up for a blessing, holding the hymn book...
* Books, soft toys, pen and pencil can still be provided for them during the readings and sermon
* Teach them to say 'Amen' and praise them for doing so
* Be positive in your expectations of their behaviour: tell them the way you would like them to join in and why you expect their co-operation.

A FIVE YEAR OLD learning to read enjoys practising the skills in Church. You will have to explain that grown-ups read fast! But make sure that they have all the relevant books needed in the service; let them find hymn and page numbers. Look for the instructions - sit, stand, kneel - and follow them. Point out when an 'Amen' is coming and join in; encourage them to recognise words they know and to participate in the responses.

SHARING WITH THE CHRISTIAN FAMILY in Church is one part of worship; saying prayers and graces at home is a complementary activity. Prayer becomes a natural part of life, accepted as the child grows up. As we remember the anniversary of baptism, the candle given at the Service can be lit, remind them that prayers are said for them in Church on the first Sunday of the month of baptism in Bere Regis (at the 9.30 am Parish Communion) and at Affpomie in Affpudde (at 11 am on the third Sunday) - this happens for the five years following baptism and a card is normally also sent.

Adapted from 'CHILDREN AND WORSHIP', written by Richard Hughes, Director of Education in the Salisbury Diocese, in a Mothers' Union pamphlet - available in both Churches. (Reproduced with permission.)

FROM THE CHURCH REGISTERS

Holy Matrimony
June 20 Lyndon WHITE and Julie Josephine BRADY
July 4 Filippo DOLFUS di VOLCKERSBERG and Malita MAXWELL

Burial of the Dead
June 23 Betty House LYS
July 10 Cyril George SCOTT

IN MEMORIAM

BETTY HOUSE LYS was born in Milton Abbas, but spent all of her fifty-two years of married life in Bere Regis. She was very much part of the local community and was a familiar sight out walking with the dog - many dogs over the years - climbing Black Hill or strolling up South Mead. She loved sport and had been actively involved in Hockey, Badminton and Tennis - the latter, right into her 80's. Her garden was a place where she also worked hard and gained great pleasure, this was linked to her interest in flower arranging, and her skills were often to be seen in the Church. The Royal British Legion, and especially the Poppy Day Appeal, were among her many other interests, but above all she was involved with her family whom she loved greatly, and her grandsons were a special joy to her: Fred and the family will miss her greatly as will so many in Bere Regis - our love and prayers goes to them at this time.

CYRIL GEORGE SCOTT was born as the youngest of eight in a Puddletown family. His family had a long history of army service, but Cyril's love of the countryside and nature was to take him into gardening as an occupation: he began by working in several gardens in Puddletown and then trained under Fred Streeter at Petworth House in Sussex before returning to his much loved Dorset to work in a number of gardens. But twenty four years ago his heart illness began and he had to work at Bovington until his retirement. As he loved natural things, so he also loved his family, to whom he was devoted, and his Church and the Lord whom he served so faithfully. In Puddletown he had been a member of the Sunday School and the Choir, a bell-ringer, and a Sidesman and later at Affpudde he was a member of the P.C.C and a Sidesman. He was well-loved and his own care and concern for others was always apparent. He loved young people and was involved in the Scout movement: he also enjoyed music, especially military bands and singing his favourite hymns. Our sympathy is extended to his family in their time of sadness, but we rejoice for all that Cyril achieved and gave to so many.

THE LITTLE GIRL returned home after having visited her grandmother who was in hospital for a knee operation. "How was surgery?" enquired her father. "Oh, she's fine - it's only her leg that's poorly." was the surprising answer.

THE ELDERLY PARISHIONER stood on the church steps, thanking the vicar. "It was a wonderful sermon you preached today" she said, "Everything you said applied to somebody or other I know."

IF ALL the neglected Bibles were dusted simultaneously, we would have a record dust storm and the sun would go into eclipse for a whole week.

BERE REGIS NEWS

PARISH COUNCIL A letter has been received from the County Surveyors, saying that there is no way in the foreseeable future that he would allow the slip road to the West of the village to be shut off. He points out the volume of traffic through the village is a great deal less than before the by-pass was built, and is much the same as other villages in a similar position.

A decision has been taken by the Parish Council to reverse a bye-law made in the 1950s, and from now on stone masons will be allowed to include their names on headstones in the cemetery.

AUTUMN LEAVES OVER 60s CLUB A very successful open day was enjoyed by all our members (with a few visitors) - our exhibition of dolls produced a wonderful selection from 60 years old to present day dolls - a really interesting exhibition - our annual rose competition produced 24 roses and a difficult job for our judges Mr. & Mrs. Bush to decide the winner for the silver bowl. The winner was Mrs. Chalk. Also the competition for a cup and saucer, producing 24 sets (some over 100 years old), the winner by public votes was Mrs. Nan Mooney. Tea was served, a raffle, etc. Everyone had a very friendly and happy afternoon. It is a great pity the Over 60 Club is not supported by our local residents for this particular open day - it is always a very interesting and happy afternoon.

Members of Autumn Leaves Over 60 Club are invited to 'tea' for their next meeting on Wednesday, 12th August at 2.30 p.m. at Kathleen and Charles Jeeves, "Larkspur", Snowhill - usual pick-ups by Mr. Sykes.

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND we are opening our garden on Saturday, 8th and Sunday, 9th August from 11.00 a.m. - 6.00 p.m. Teas will be available - in aid of Guide Dogs. We hope to see you all - Plant Stall, Raffle, we hope to have a Guide Dog there:

BERE REGIS FIRST SCHOOL - PTA NEWS

The Bales are judged and then auctioned. Come along and buy a bale for your treasured pet.
We are saying goodbye to Maureen Welstead at the end of this month. She has been Welfare Assistant at school for 14 years. Her talents are innumerable, in other words she can turn her hand to anything that is asked of her, from backing books, putting up displays, making work cards, prearing for handicraft lessons, working with groups of children as well as the messy jobs that working with young children entails.

Many children who have been to Bere Regis School will remember her for her care and concern - they always knew they could turn to Maureen. A big thank you, Maureen, for all you have done for the children and the School.

D.C. Truswell, Secretary

THANKS Grateful thanks to all who gave so generously to the recent Church Army collections. The combined total for both parishes was £165.50 which is a record. My personal thanks to the collectors, who gave their time so willingly.

Brenda Pitfield

"PRAISE BE" To Mrs. Peggy Moss, Mrs. Cis Lewis, Mrs. Iris Bush and Mrs. Barbara Griffin for carrying off 3 gold, 2 silver and 2 red star awards at the County Art and Craft Exhibition at Dorchester and for positioning Bere Regis second in the co-operative 'special event' class. This news welcomed us to our June members' evening when there was a report of the Annual General Meeting at the Albert Hall and a link letter was read. We were then entertained by 7 members, in a colourful well staged happy rendering of Old Tyme Songs from various regions. Fancy biscuits and fudge were also enjoyed.

It was agreed that our special charity to support in our 70th year was to be the PAM Brown child cancer fund to which we hoped to be able to give a substantial donation in 1988 as our birthday present.

MOTHERS' UNION The July meeting took the form of communion, followed by the AGM. After the business was discussed the vicar showed his slides of Ethiopia, taken when he was in that country making arrangements to bring home baby Hannah.

A coffee evening in aid of MU funds will be held at 60a West Street (by kind permission of Mrs. Tony House), on September 2nd at 7.30 p.m. Stalls will be Bring and Buy, Cookstall, Draw and coffee. Admission 25p. There will also be a display of members' animal ornaments. Everyone welcome.

BERE REGIS LICENSED INDOOR KNOCKOUT TROPHY This was the second year of this knockout and after some keen competition, the eventual winners were a team from the Sports Club. The trophy was presented to the winners on Sunday 12th July at the Sports Club by Miss A. Lys accompanied by Mrs. Hudson. A cheque for £35 was then handed to them for Imperial Cancer Research - this being monies raised by the knockout. Many thanks to all establishments and competitors.

BERE REGIS FRIENDS OF THE IMPERIAL CANCER RESEARCH FUND Our coffee morning at Barrow Hill House on July 8th raised £152.10. We are very grateful to the Sports Club who organised a knock-out competition and presented us with a cheque for £35. Thank you to everyone who supported us on these occasions.

THE R.B.L. WOMEN'S SECTION Held their annual fete on 13th June. This event raised £241. A big thank you to all who supported, donated and helped to make the day such a success.

Again an annual event, 17th June. Our Mystery Tour was very much enjoyed by many members and friends.

On 1st July a 'cuppa for caring' morning was held at Mrs. Steele's. This again was successful £43.50 being raised.

100 YEARS AGO The following account of the Jubilee celebrations appeared in the Parish magazine for August 1887:-

OUR JUBILEE FESTIVALS

Early on the morning of the 23rd of June, various signs announced that this was the day on which the village of Bere Regis intended to keep holiday.

The Dorset Rifles fired a Royal salute.

Nor were the anvils of the smithy mute;

The new flag floated from the old church tower.

The bells rang out the long-expected hour.

The whole village was gaily decorated with flags and flowers and evergreens and loyal mottoes. The oldest inhabitants had never seen the village look so gay before - all seemed to enter into the spirit of the hour, and to take delight in doing honor to their Queen. We will not attempt to describe the decorations. We need only say that the we think the Queen would have been gratified if she could have looked in on us on the 28th of June. She would have seen that the dwellers in Bere Regis shared the affectionate loyalty of which her jubilee called forth such a wonderful expression throughout the whole Empire, and which she recognised in her letter to the nation as the reward of a lifetime of anxious labour for the welfare of her people. The day's programme began with the thanksgiving service at 1.30. The choir met the procession of children and others at the north gate of the churchyard, and led the way into church singing a hymn. The National Anthem was sung at the close of the service, and then a procession was again formed, and after marching up and down the village, led by the Warenham band, it found its way to Mr. Lys' field, where the rest of the day was to be spent. Mr. James Davis had skilfully erected a very business-like tent out of fir poles (kindly given by Colonel Cambridge), and rick cloths, borrowed from the neighbours. Tables ran in two rows the whole length of the tent, and afforded room for 400 to be seated at once. About 350 tickets were issued for dinner, and a capital meal was provided by Mr. George at a very moderate cost. Everything was well and liberally done. The toast of the day "God Save the Queen," was proposed by Mr. Egginton Ernle; and as soon as the tables were cleared of the dinner they were again loaded for tea. The ladies (under the leadership of Miss Lys) managed the tea to the evident satisfaction of the 600 or 700 women and children who partook of it. Before the tea was over the sports began, and, under the superintendence of Messrs. Johnson and Gregory, a long and varied programme was successfully carried out. In the tug-of-war the married men proved that their stake in the country was heavier than that of the single men. There were races for children, egg races, obstacle race, man and wife race, and many others. Dancing was kept up with great spirit all evening, and it was not until after dark that the sports were concluded, and the prizes were given to the winners by Mrs. Ernle by the light of a "lantern dimly burning". Cheers were again given for the Queen, and thanks were heartily accorded to all who had assisted by contributions and willing help, in forms too various to specify, to make the day such an unqualified success. As soon as it was dark enough Mr. Hibbs began his part, and he certainly proved that the committee had done wisely in entrusting the fireworks entirely to his choice and management. The jubilee committee were amply repaid for all the trouble and thought and time they had devoted to meetings and preparations, by the unanimous approval of the whole parish. Many of the houses were very prettily illuminated at night.

Any new players for the coming season will, as always, be welcome. We have sides in Dorset Div 1, Dorset Div 3 East and a Sunday side. A new venture this season is the starting of an under 11 side who will play in the East Dorset Sunday Youth League. The Annual "Adrian Wallstead Memorial Trophy" football match was played this year at W. Kingston. In probably the best spirited of the games since first being played in 1982 the teams were fairly evenly placed going in at half-time 1-1. However, W. Kingston excelled in the second half to end the match 6-2 winners! The trophy was presented to Kingston captain, Mr Keith Burridge by Mr & Mrs A Wallstead (Adrian's mother and father). Monies from match fees and a raffle totalling £75.00 was handed over to Mr & Mrs Wallstead for Adrian's daughter Sheree. The organisers would like to thank everyone, especially the footballers for their help and support in making the event a success.

MEMBERS OF THE BERE REGIS, MORDEN & BLOXWORTH BRANCH of the South Dorset Conservative Association visited A.E.E. Winfrith on Tuesday, 7th July and spend an informative three hours on a conducted tour of sections of the site. The visit commenced with an explanatory talk of the work of the Radiological and Safety Division, and finished with exhibition and tour of the Reactor Building.

BERE REGIS SCOUT GROUP We hope you all enjoyed the entertainment of The Yetti's at our Dorset Barn Dance. We much appreciate the support of parents and friends who made the evening such a success. A profit of over £100 was made on the event and as well the Grand Draw, due to the generosity of those who donated prizes and sold a large number of tickets, brought in a further £150. This will help us to buy some more material for our H.O. By now you will have seen the structure of the building rising and it is hoped that the roof will be on by the time you read this. The last two weekends have been very busy for our building volunteers and we are very grateful to those who have taken pity on them and have brought cooling drinks in the summer sun.
