READING IN CHURCH...
If you would like to join our regular readers and take part in our Services, please let the Vicar know. Our worship is enhanced by having a number of voices involved. Amplification is available, if required, in Bere Regis. More volunteers would also be welcome to join the rota of people leading the prayers at Bere Regis.

FLOWER ARRANGING...
Each week of the year, except in Lent and Advent, we are fortunate in having people who take time and use their skill to beautify our Churches with flower arrangements. Additional names to go on the rota or to help at the great festivals are always welcomed. Mrs Thorniley at Affpuddle and Mrs England or Mrs House at Bere Regis would welcome any new volunteers.
Our thanks, as in all the important tasks, to all who help in this way already.

BELLRINGING...
The art of Bellringing is skillful and enjoyable: at Affpuddle the four bells are chimed by one person, while at Bere Regis we have six bells which are rung in the traditional fashion from a bell-ringing chamber on the first floor of the tower. If you would like to join the Bere Regis Bell Ringers then you would be welcome on any Wednesday evening: at 6.30 pm the beginners meet in the Church porch, with the improvers joining at 7 pm. Just turn up, or contact the Tower Captain, John England (471469).
There will be a bell-ringers Evensong at Bere Regis on Sunday 15 October at 6 pm. The tower will be open to visitors on that evening - all welcome.

MORE NEW CHORISTERS WOULD ALSO BE WELCOME AT BERE REGIS: FRIDAYS 7.15 - 8 PM JUNIORS AND 7.45 - 9.00 PM ADULTS.

IN MEMORIAM

John OLNEY, known as 'Jack' died peacefully in Christmas Close Hospital in Wareham. He loved natural things - gardening was his great joy and his abilities spoke for themselves in the marvellous results that he obtained. His life had been lived partly in Coventry and partly in South Africa before Dorset - Wareham and Bere Regis - became his home. For many years he had been employed by English Electric and he was one of their employees on several interesting and demanding projects in South Africa, a country which he loved. He enjoyed a simple life and expected little; he will be sorely missed by those who knew him; may he rest in peace.

THE GOOD BOOK STUDY GROUP...

This term we are not studying a book! Instead we will be basing our studies on a series of audio tapes by CHARLES ELLIOTT to which his book "PRAYING THE KINGDOM" is closely related.

Prayer, spirituality, involvement in the world, the Bible... are among the areas that we will be considering in this very stimulating series this Autumn.

There are two opportunities to join in;
- on MONDAYS September 18, October 2, 16 and 30, November 13 and 27.
- at THE VICARAGE from 10.30 - 11.30 am (Coffee from 10.15 onwards)
- OR from 8.15 - 9.15 pm at venues given on the Notice papers on the same dates (Coffee from 8 pm onwards).

Do come - notes provided each session: all are most welcome at any or all of this series.

SAINTS ALIVE

An afternoon for CHILDREN of all ages:
- with lots of opportunities for adults to join in as well!
- Activities, action, stories, worship... and much more helping to bring the Christian faith to life by looking at the lives of real people in this age and in centuries past.

An afternoon for the WHOLE CHRISTIAN FAMILY in Bere Regis Church on SATURDAY 11 NOVEMBER from 2.30 - 5 pm.

BERE REGIS NEWS

PARISH COUNCIL
The Council would like to remind everyone that the River Walk is for walking, not cycling. Children especially have been using the path as a bike track, and this is not what it was made for.
We are still looking for a street cleaner, for four hours per week in the winter months, and eight hours in summer. The wage is £3 per hour.
Anyone interested please contact Tony Wise or Jim Shave.
It was with regret that the P.C. noted that the Purr Bus will no longer be running. It is hoped that another firm will take up the operation.
The cemetery is looking good for the time of year, but the contractors have requested more cuts next year, to keep it looking good. It was agreed to have five cuts with an option on a sixth.
A quotation of £800 has been received from the SEB for two new street lights, one in Church Lane, and the other at Shitterton. The Council hope to start this work in the near future, and will then look at the other areas of the village in need of new lighting, that can be carried out at some later date.
All members agreed that the litter bin, which was provided through Mr Shave, adjoining the seat on the Cross, is a great improvement to the area, and hope it will be used, and not damaged in any way.

COW DROVE
It appears that the difference of opinions over Cow Drove have been settled.
However the stretch of road also known as Cow Drove, between the Link Road and the old Townsend Farmhouse through the Industrial Park has not been designated. The matter is under discussion between Dorset County Council (who are responsible for highways,brideways, and footpaths), the Dorset Police, and probably the landowner.
It is worth noting that the mutilation of our local history is not brought about by the Parish Council. They make every endeavour to retain it by using original names for roads and erecting a Domesday Plaque on the Pound wall. These are just two instances of their concern. When a decision on the road is made, the Council bearing in mind all the correspondence on the subject will take the appropriate action.

Richard J. Goldie

BERE REGIS WIVES GROUP
Just a reminder that, Tuesday, 24th October will be the Annual General Meeting. Please could everyone attend!

THANK YOU
After over 20 years in the village the Gooch family will have left Sitterton by September. We would like to thank all those who have helped us, and supported our various activities over the years. Our family have benefitted from the wide variety of experiences and personalities that go with village life in a caring community, and we are grateful.

MOTHER'S UNION
At our September meeting Mr D. Bentley gave a talk and video on the work of the Church of England Children's Society, which was enjoyed by all the members. The speaker on 4th October will be Mrs Hutchinson who will be talking on religion in Ireland. Tea Hostesses will be Mary House, Rene Phillips and Audrey Painter.

BERE REGIS FLORAL GROUP
The demonstration at the next meeting on Tuesday, October 10th will be given by Mrs Andrea Wilkinson and is called "Lives and Times". There will also be a Plant Stall at this meeting and members are asked to bring anything they may have.

IMPERIAL CANCER RESEARCH FUND
I have so many thank-you's to say following our Cheese and Wine party at Camelot, Affpuddle on 8th September - firstly to everyone who came and made the evening such a happy and enjoyable one, secondly to all those who were not able to come but nevertheless sent donations. Lastly, I would like to thank all the other members of the ICRF Committee who gave me so much help and support on the evening. Delicious food appeared from all sides, like the Loaves and Fishes (and, as in the parable, there were twelve baskets left over!) and many hands made light work of all the clearing up at the end. The party was a great financial success, and made a profit of £277.31 for Cancer Research.

Diana Holman

IMPERIAL CANCER RESEARCH FUND CHRISTMAS CARDS
We apologise for the delay in issuing Christmas catalogues, caused by printing difficulties, and hope to be able to distribute them soon.

BERE REGIS PLAY GROUP
As a new term begins we have said goodbye to seven of our children, who have started school. All vacancies have rapidly been filled and we have no further spaces until January, when 12 of our children go to school. So if you wish to put your child on the waiting list please phone Sue Cheeseman on Bere Regis 471165, our play group Supervisor.

FLIGHT TO FUND RAISE
As many of you are aware Mrs Joan Hastings, the Landlady of the Royal Oak, Bere Regis, went up in an aeroplane with Chris Hopkins and the 2CR Air Watch, from Hurn Airport over the New Forest Show, over the Solent, Isle of Wight, Bournemouth, Poole, Wimborne and back again. Joan, generously sponsored by her customers and some play group mothers, raised £212 for our funds. Well done Joan, and many thanks to all her kind Sponsors.
ALTERATIONS TO PLAY GROUP
We hope in the future to make more space within our play group by knocking out some cupboards so Joan's efforts will be put to good use. Any builder who wishes to put in an estimate for this work please contact us on 471 165.

BERE REGIS SCOUT GROUP
The report of the opening of the HQ will appear next month. We must take this opportunity to thank all those who have offered a home for the various sections of the group over the past years including the Youth Club and both Bere Regis and Winterborne Kingston Schools whose leaders, caretakers and head teachers have made us welcome.

There will be some changes in the meeting nights and times when the Headquarters is in full use so keep an eye on the Church and Village Activities section of this magazine.

Carol Singing this year will be in aid of The Dorset Children's Centre.

BELLRINGERS
Bere Regis has a fine peal of six bells dating back to 1602. We have a dedicated group of ringers who ring for most services and who are willing to help others to learn the art.

Wednesday evening is practice evening; 6.30pm for beginners and 7.00pm for improvers - which means nearly every ringer: we can all learn a bit more.

We will welcome anyone who would like to try and who may find they would like to continue and become able to help out Sunday by Sunday and ring for special occasions like weddings. Please meet at the Church porch and be prepared for the 50 stairs to the ringing chamber. Yet another way you can serve the Church.

TRAIDCRAFT STALL
Buy your Christmas presents early! There will be a Traidcraft Stall at the Drax Hall Mini-Market on Saturday, 14th October, at which there will be lots of suitable items for Christmas presents, and a catalogue should you want to order more. Also: there is now a Traidcraft catalogue and order form permanently situated in the Church, and orders can be made regularly throughout the year. Buying through Traidcraft is an excellent way of helping producers in the Third World to rise above grinding poverty, and at the same time making interesting and unusual purchases. Please do support this enterprise.

CANCER RELIEF MACMILLAN FUND
There will be a big Christmas Fair in aid of the above at the Memorial Hall, Bovington Camp on Thursday, 2nd November from 10am to 4pm. Admission will be 25p.

There will be a large number of craft and gift stalls. Light lunches and wine, tea and coffee will be available.

All proceeds will be devoted to the local Macmillan Nursing Services.

AUTUMN LEAVES OVER 60 CLUB
Over 60 members attended our 19th Birthday Luncheon and enjoyed an excellent lunch provided by the Committee. Nan Mooney (Hon Sec) gave this year's reminder of our past year's activities (parties, talks, quizzes, rose competition and tours, etc). Cis Lewis (Hon Treasurer) made a delicious birthday cake. Kath Jeeves (President) thanked the Committee for their hard work during the past year and everyone who helped us in any way. We have excellent helpers and we are so grateful to them. She gave the toast to Autumn Leaves. Afterwards we were entertained by The Cascades.

We have over 70 members and our attendances are excellent to all meetings. We welcome any new members who would like to join us, just telephone Nan 471 472 or Kath 471 175 and we will visit you and introduce ourselves.

A really wonderful Birthday Party.

Our next meeting is a trip to Ocean Village, Southampton to view the lovely boats, etc. The coach will leave Turberville Court at 12.15, price £3, on Wednesday, 11th October. Will you please let Nan or Kath know by the 3rd October if you are coming so that we can offer seats to our friends to help fill the coach.
Again, grateful thanks to you all - God Bless.
K.J.

GUIDES...
... have restarted, and have just a few vacancies for any girl between the ages of 10 and 15, to join in the fun and games. In the near future we are having a joint coffee evening with Brownies, a Guides trip to the Panto and a Hallowe'en evening crammed in somewhere!!! Come and join in the games and craft work with a chance to gain interest badges. We meet at the First School Hall on Friday evenings 6.30-8.15pm. Any questions, call either Pat Bentley on 471875 or Carol Cox on 471803.

GUIDE DOGS FOR THE BLIND
Kathleen and Charlie Jeeves would like to give a big thank you to everyone who supported their "Garden Open" and to the ladies who gave delicious cakes, etc. A great total of £600 profit was made and we have now bought a Guide Dog puppy to be called Charleen and which has now been registered. It is a Black Labrador. In the past three years we have raised £1,200 with our garden openings so now have £200 towards a second Guide Dog. We are so grateful to you all who visited our garden and gave such wonderful support.
Thanks to Steve Painter who loaned and erected a canopy and to Pauline for her lovely puppies, and to our friends who kindly helped throughout the two days.
We have Xmas Cards in aid of Guide Dogs for sale. Please telephone 471175 if you would like to buy any, or call at "Larkspur", Snow Hill.
K.J. & C.J.

SAVE THE CHILDREN
A Christmas Fair will be held on Wednesday, 15th November from 10am to 1pm in the Corn Exchange, Dorchester. There will be cards, gifts, cakes and produce, white elephant stall, raffle and coffee. Entrance 30p, children free - so support us!

100 YEARS AGO
From the Parish Magazine for October 1889:-
THE FLOWER SHOW
Our first Flower Show has come and gone, and all are agreed that it was - as the County Chronicle said - an unqualified success. An exhibition of this kind must always entail a good deal of preliminary work - a great deal more probably than those who have never served on any committee for a similar purpose have any idea of. The proof of the pudding is in the eating, and the proof of the labours and deliberations of our Flower Show Committee was seen in Court Green on the afternoon of Friday, the 30th of August. The committee consisted of Messrs. A. Batrwick, S. Bemister, W. Bullen, J. Davis, D. Hewitt, J. Janes, G. Langdown, T. Miller, G. Payne and W. Poole, with the Rev W. Farrer as Chairman. Mr. W. Bullen very kindly undertook the honorary and onerous duties of secretary, and the success of the show was due, in very great measure, to the energetic and business-like way in which he carried out all the necessary arrangements. So many things may go wrong on such occasions, that when no mishap does occur, all concerned deserve very hearty congratulations, and these, as well as thanks corresponding in heartiness, we take upon ourselves to offer on behalf of the village, to the committee of the first exhibition of the Bere Regis Horticultural and Industrial Society. At two o'clock the church bells proclaimed that the show was open, and very soon visitors began to arrive; and from two till half-past seven the keepers of the gate were never allowed to go to sleep. Exhibitors were admitted free, but in spite of this, as much as £13.8s.3d. was taken at the gates - a larger sum than the most sanguine had ventured to expect. The price of admission was:
From two till four, 1s.; after four, 6d. Children half-price.
We may be pardoned for referring with satisfaction to the fulfilment of our prophecy in the Magazine for December, 1888, that we had little doubt that sufficient money would be forthcoming to enable us to carry out all arrangements in a manner worthy of our traditions. The accounts, when published will show how much we were indebted to many kind friends, whose liberality enabled us to hire a first-rate tent (65 feet long by 30 broad), and also to engage the services of the admirable Band of the 1st V.B. Dorsetshire Regiment. We have not space to enlarge on the excellence of the flowers and vegetables, etc. Those who saw them will remember them without our help.

Club Report
The Cricket Club's first team headed towards a minefield of awkward games to avoid the drop in mid-August, the first two causing one or two headaches when the side fell at home in matches that were vital. Firstly against an over-strong Colehill team who set a seemingly formidable total of 158, largely thanks to bowling off the square resulting in over worked fielders. Bere Regis reached 103 in reply constricted by accurate bowling. Against Shillingstone the game was totally different, hitting a meagre 89 with strange batting. Bere struggled and the away side reaching 90 after losing a nailbiting eight wickets. Faces lengthened with late shadows at a despondent Plantain Park. The annual travel to lowly West Moors provided the much needed victory, and momentous it was. The side hit a club record of 223. Seventy seven runs coming from the first ten overs on a wicket where a tennis racket was needed. Russell Hewitt paving the way with 68, also Harvey Nunn with 32 and then Alan "Ton-Up" Green with 51 not out keeping the boundaries flowing. The ebullient Martin Mullins went on to take a further four wickets with his own style of seam-up bowling. A rained off game with Kings Park left the final game of the season at home to Bournemouth.

A new management team promising success and big signings took the reigns at the start of a new season of football at the rec. Both accounts were fulfilled. The prize capture of the mercurial talents of Andy Griffiths proved a hit with the faithfuls, although yet to see one or two other new signings. The first match at home to Blandford ended up 5-0 to Bere. Andy Griffiths opening up after racing on to an inch perfect through ball, heading at close range for two and wrapping up a fine hat trick with a merciless chip late in the game. Away at Broadmayne it was Griffiths again scoring after showing sharpness in front of the goal, converting a penalty. Finally claiming a debatable third from a corner. The second team fared differently, their fate being a 4-1 defeat. There will be no repeat of this performance after assurances from the manager during a press conference after the match. Steve Cheeseman scored a goal in the friendlies.

FILM BAN

WHILE a number of countries have faced controversy over whether the film 'The Last Temptation of Christ' should be censored, in Israel the national Film and Theatre Review Board has banned it, on the grounds that it is offensive to Christianity.

Israeli law forbids offending any religion. In 1977, the board banned 'The Passover Plot', which portrays Jesus as a political revolutionary who tried unsuccessfully to fake his death.

USE AND ABUSE

THE PHRASE 'the drug problem' often refers to illegal substances. But untold millions have found themselves in the grip of drugs provided, on prescription, by a caring GP who was trying to allay their misery.

The scale of the problem is alarming numbers of people and now the Churches Council on Alcohol and Drugs has a publication 'Prescription for Anxiety' which aims 'to help the Churches take an informed and practical look at the use and misuse of tranquillisers.'

A PRESENT FOR LIFE

CHILDREN all over the country have been shopping with a difference. They have been encouraged by the African Pastor Fund to spend £3 on 'a present to last a lifetime'.

They bought a basic teaching pack to send to a Sunday school child in East Africa; the pack consisted of pencils, crayons, exercise books, drawing pads and a Lion or Ladybird Bible story book — and 50p was allowed for freight.

The Africa Pastor Fund provides equipment for church pastors — bicycles, books, blankets, hand-cranked cassette players. The children's presents, which are due to be dispatched around early Summer, are part of APP's concern to help the next generation of East African pastors.

HOW LONG?

LIFE expectancy at birth in 1988 in Britain is 71 years for men and 77 years for women, compared with 45 years for men and 52 years for women at the turn of the century.

(Social Trends HMSO).

ALONE

FORTY-SEVEN per cent of over-75-year-olds in Britain live alone.

(Social Trends HMSO).
VIEWS ABOUT GOD AND HEAVEN

Hayley Mills has been doing more recently than whistle down the wind (and if you catch that allusion you're probably at least x0-plus). She's collaborated with musician Marcus Macalpine to produce a bookful of what the famous believe about God.

'My God' is published by Pelham Books at £9.95, and includes their views on 'Who or what is your personal concept of God?' and 'What do you believe happens to you when you die?' Royalties are going to support the work of Save the Children.

Wellknown 'professional' Christians are there - the Archbishop of Canterbury and Billy Graham, to name only two; and wellknown people who are also professing Christians.

They asked Jews, Moslems, Hindus and Buddhists for their views - there are rabbis, actors, authors, scientists here. There are people who believe in God, people who aren't sure - and people who answered the two questions with two words - 'none' and 'nothing'.

LASER FOCUS

'ELEVEN'S to fourteen's are neither children nor fully fledged teenagers.' If you've ever thought the same, you'd agree with Angela Flynn, who has worked extensively with the age group and now edits a new Christian publication for them.

'The commercial world,' she added, 'tries to cater for them by forcing them to grow up more quickly, while churches seem unable to decide whether they are a watered-down youth group or a souped-up Sunday School. Are they special people, or just a nuisance until they grow up?'

'Laser' is a magazine for 11s-14s to enjoy alongside the other 'Learning Together' materials produced by the Scripture Union for all ages from children to adults.

CHURCH WARNING

Churches in the Philippines are speaking out against 'Substance abuse', that catch-all concept which includes drugs, smoking and alcohol.

The National Council of Churches has called for church members to stop smoking and for a ban on advertisements for alcohol and cigarettes. The Council is made up of ten denominations, excluding the majority Roman Catholic Church.

INTERNATIONAL

Taize, the ecumenical monastic community in south eastern France, has planned its first international youth meeting in eastern Europe. It is to take place in Pecs, Hungary April 28-30. Taize has previously held national youth meetings in eastern Europe - in Poland and East Germany.
