LEADERSHIP IS...

The Archbishop of Canterbury has announced his impending retirement: Dr. Runcie will retire at the end of next January, some nine months before he reaches the age of 70, when Church of England bishops are required to retire.

Dr. Runcie is the 102nd Archbishop of Canterbury, and immediately everyone from the 'heavy-weight' church media to the bookmakers were making their own predictions on who would be the 103rd Archbishop!

But what kind of leadership does the Anglican Church in this country - and in the world need at this time? Most important is the example given to us in Jesus Christ and his leadership of his disciples: among the qualities we find there are...

Prayerfulness, Preaching, Teaching, Loving, Prophecy and Vision.

Part of our response must be to PRAY for our leaders and for those who appoint them; and if we are not willing to be led then we cannot expect inspired leadership!

C.S. Lewis once considered the subject of leadership in the Church:

"When they ask for a lead from the Church, most people mean that they want the clergy to put out a political programme. That is silly. The clergy are those particular people within the whole Church who have been specially trained and set aside to look after what concerns us as creatures who are going to live for ever, and we are asking them to do a quite different job for which they have not been trained. The job is really on us, on the layman. The application of Christian principles, say, to trade unionism or education, must come from trade unionists and Christian school teachers, just as Christian literature comes from Christian novelists and dramatists - not from the bench of bishops getting together and trying to write plays and novels in their spare time."

We see some lovely butterflies around at this time of year. It seems incredible that the lumbering, furry caterpillar can turn into such a beautiful creature. No doubt the caterpillar is quite content with its quality of life, unaware that there is so much more available.

God can make a similar transformation in our lives. We may think our life is all right as it is, or we might welcome a change. In either case, there is much more available to us. Jesus said, "I have come that you might have life, life in all its fulness." It's only Jesus that can make the change, we can't do it on our own. And, unlike the butterfly which only

Why not find out more about this new life at one of the services advertised in this magazine?

REGIS PRAISE SUNDAY 22 JULY 6.00 pm

Many people expressed their appreciation after our first Regis Praise service in April. This month’s Regis Praise takes place on Sunday 22 July at 6.00 pm when our guest preacher will be the Revd Eric Sellgren from Iverne Minster. The theme in the Anglican Church that day is "The More Excellent Way" which is the phrase St. Paul used to describe the way of love. We will be thinking of God’s love for us and ours for each other.

Do come along and bring your friends. We will welcome you.

Brenda Pitfield

CONGRATULATIONS to the Archdeacon of Sherborne, the Venerable John Oliver - who lives at West Stafford - on his appointment as the next Bishop of Hereford. We pray for him and his family as they prepare for this new ministry.

AFFPUDDLE ANNUAL CHURCH FETE

Throughout the week leading up to the Fete the weather threatened to cause its cancellation, but luckily the Saturday dawned dry and bright and the arrangements went ahead. True it wasn't a blazing June day but we have all seen much worse. In the event despite some earlier dark clouds the rain held off until just after 4 o'clock. By that time, in addition to all the children who were allowed in free, over 170 people had paid to go in.

Nearly £700 was taken by the various stalls and sideshows, the Tombola proved to be particularly successful. After expenses have all been paid there should still be something over £600 to help towards the target for the Church Restoration Fund. Not so much as last year when the weather was kinder but nevertheless a useful sum.

The organising committee would like to thank all those who contributed so generously to the stalls, all those who manned the stalls and sideshows and helped with the rigging and in particular all those who came and spent so freely. We hope you enjoyed it.

BERE REGIS PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCIL will meet at 7.30 pm on Wednesday 11 July at The Vicarage. The main item for discussion is YOUNG PEOPLE in our Parish...
‘SINISTER’ IF CHRISTIANS HUSH IT UP

‘THERE’ is something quite sinister about people who have knowledge of good news but keep it to themselves. It is hard to imagine a team of research scientists stumbling on a cure for cancer and deciding not to tell anybody; and if they did we would regard them as either stupid or evil.

‘Christianity is good news: good news about the words and works of Jesus. It is news that can and does transform both lives and communities. The time has come, surely, to end our conspiracy of silence about it and let the whole world into the secret.’

DAVID WINTER, ex-Head of Religious Broadcasting, BBC now Bishop of Oxford’s Officer for Evangelism

THE deeper that sorrow carves into your being, the more joy you can contain. Joy and sorrow are inseparable.

KAHIL GIBRAN

BEAUTY is God’s handwriting - a wayside sacrament. Welcome it in every fair face, in every fair sky, in every flower, and thank God for it.

UNEMPLOYMENT, especially long-term unemployment, suddenly rose dramatically in the early 1980s, and this was the setting in which Church Action with the Unemployed began a challenging, enabling and caring ministry with local churches and unemployed people.

Since the mid-80s Unemployment Sunday, promoted by CAWTU, has developed to become, now, a regular feature in the calendar of thousands of churches. This year's Unemployment Sunday falls 'officially' on February 25. Many churches find it convenient to use the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, with all the demands on time during Lent and Easter, and when there is media attention focussed on Unemployment. But in fact any Sunday can be used; the main aim is to ensure we all remember to focus our thoughts and prayers on the unemployed on at least one week of the year.

We read that unemployment figures are falling, that some companies in some parts of the country cannot fill some vacancies, while other people insist that they cannot land a job after many years out of work. In fact there remains a core of around three-quarters of a million men and women who haven't had a job for over a year—often for many years.

Unemployment Sunday, with materials available from CAWTU, gives a chance to find out what the latest unemployment figures really mean, and whether there is still an 'unemployment problem'. In particular, there are newly published materials helping you to understand more about those who are, now, Britain's unemployed...what are the other factors in employment and unemployment...why some people cannot find work...what is the nature of the 'skills and training mismatch' for which Employment Training is attempting to provide a solution.

Suggestions for Bible reading, study, prayer would be useful for individual concerned people as well as group leaders. Write for more details to CAWTU at the address below; CAWTU will also put you in touch with the regional contact person if you would like to find out more about church-related and other unemployment initiatives in our own area.

BERE REGIS NEWS

PARISH COUNCIL
The May meeting was the first of the "New" Council. There was no election needed this year because only nine Parishioners offered themselves for the Council, leaving two vacancies which should, by the time you read this, have been filled by co-option. The Chairman (Lionel Street) and Vice-Chairman (Richard Goldie) were elected unanimously.

The usual variety of matters was discussed and debated, amongst which were to note the arrival of the new footbridge over the Bere Stream (don't blame us - we didn't choose the design), and the need for a village noticeboard — if a site in West Street can be found. The Elder Road Play Area is still a concern, and we are now to get expert help on safety and the type (and costs) of new equipment. We hope that the newly-installed chicane in Elder Road (asked for by this Council, promptly provided by the County Council) will help slow down traffic to allow for children crossing the road at this point. It is hoped that we will soon be organising a review of the condition of all the footpaths and bridleways in the Parish, and we will be calling on volunteers to assist — more details in due time.

In case anyone is not sure, it must be stressed that the Parish Council meetings are open to the public, and there is always a space on the agenda during which anyone can speak on any topic of concern in the Parish. Very few Parishioners are usually present at most meetings — the Council could interpret this as meaning that there is 100%
IIENVESTORS WHO WANT TO KNOW WHERE THEIR MONEY GOES

THE SURGE of concern for 'green' issues has given fresh impetus to the idea of putting one's savings to work where they will do some good, or at least not finance dubious activities. There are a growing number of 'ethical' unit trusts and now also Personal Equity Plans (PEPs), which enable savers to build a tax-free portfolio of stocks and shares.

Some of the unit trusts have quite long track records and it has become clear that ethically selected investments generally perform as well as, or better than, those on the Financial Times index. Enthusiasts say that this is hardly surprising, since companies with principled managements are likely to be well run and popular with their customers.

The big problem for ethical investors, or the people who look after their money, is where to draw the line on what is 'ethical'. One man's ethics, it has been said, constitute another man's prejudice.

Suppose, for example, that you decide not to invest in any companies that produce alcohol. What about multi-nationals which own off licence chains? No? Then what about distributors? Even Marks & Spencer distribute alcoholic drinks. And would you be happy for your money to be in a shipping line which operates duty-free shops?

One way round this kind of difficulty is to put a limit on the percentage of a company's business which may be in an area (and that includes geographical areas) which may be suspect. Ninety per cent 'perfect' is good enough.

Some unit trust managers are stricter than others. Scottish Equitable, for instance, a life assurance company that entered the field recently, says 'No' to armaments, any company testing products on animals, South African links, nuclear fuels — and political donations over £10,000 p.a. It even cuts out banks because one could not know whether bank money was being lent to unacceptable organisations.

ON THE POSITIVE SIDE

Of course, what the funds do invest in is equally important. The Industrial Common Ownership Movement (telephone 0532 461738) has an ethical savings account (operated by the Cooperative Bank) which helps workers' co-operatives. Savers receive interest and every pound invested creates £2 of loan fund to be lent to cooperatives against normal lending criteria. Personal investors get a cash card which can be used to withdraw up to £250 a day from LINK cash dispensers.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH EVENT

UK AGENCIES Tear Fund and Youth for Christ have joined forces with an Indian relief agency, EFICOR, in a new youth initiative for this Summer. Twenty-five young people will fly from the UK to New Delhi and join Indian Christians of a similar age for four weeks of study and practical work in a project called 'Through Different Eyes'.

This initiative will help young Christians from both the UK and India to develop as 'world Christians', said Pradip Sudra of Youth for Christ.

'TALK ABOUT IT' CHURCH MEMBERS URGED

CHURCH of England and Roman Catholic parishes have been urged to use a new study guide published in the Autumn to discuss with each other some of the questions that have divided them over the last 400 years. The booklet is a follow-up to 'Salvation and the Church' which was the first agreed statement by ARCC II, the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission; it is published jointly by the Catholic Truth Society and Church House Publishing.

THIS MONTH'S COVER

THE VISIT of the Wise Men to the infant Jesus relied on their trust in the guiding star, their perseverance and their determination not to be either lured or frightened off course. Not a bad way to begin a new year, with churches remembering the event on the Sundays following Christmas, the season of Epiphany.

'RETIRE AND HELP OTHER COUNTRIES'

A NATIONAL award made to a retired medical missionary is being used to finance a trip back to a mission hospital in Africa - so that he can relieve doctors who need a rest. Dr James Burton is quoted as saying 'I can't retire from the work...Hospitals in Kwa Zululand are desperate for staff'. He urges medics working in this country to take early retirement to go to Africa and help.

Dr Burton received the individual Templeton Prize worth £3,000 for his work in building up his organisation — Equipment to Charity Hospitals Overseas — into a multimillion pound self-supporting charity. He founded ECHO in 1966 to channel equipment and drugs to non-government hospitals in developing countries.

MOTHER'S UNION
We enjoyed an excellent talk in June by Mrs Dorothy Woodfield, on Other British Christian Denominations. The July meeting will commence with Communion in Church, this will be followed by the Annual General Meeting. The tea hostesses are Mrs M Eastment, Mrs R Phillips, and Mrs C Tucker. Another event for July will be the Children's Day on Wednesday the 25th.

BERE REGIS SCOUT GROUP
The holiday season is here and the sections have, or will be, going on their respective camps — Cubs went to Bowling Green Wood at Lulworth, Scouts are off to Brecon with caving, abseiling and other exciting activities and the venture group are off to Herm in the Channel Islands. Thanks are due for the hard work of all our leaders and helpers.

A new Committee were elected at the A.G.M. and future fund raising events planned. The events and dates will be shown in the village diary and we hope for your support.

Carol Singing this year will be for Dr Barnardos — the scout association is aiming for £1,000,000 nationally.

HQ There is still a requirement for a caretaker/booking secretary for the Scout H.Q. Please contact John England if you feel you could possibly help.

BELLRINGERS
Bellringing practice will start again in September. The church is planning an open day with tours of the tower on August 5th. Come and have a look — you may well be surprised what you find.

2nd BERE REGIS GUIDE COMPANY
We had a lovely camp at Cerne Abbas. The rain held off on the Tuesday we arrived until all the tents were up, and stopped again before late evening. On Wednesday we had a few visitors and after a Treasure Hunt the girls taking their Hostess badge helped serve tea. Needless to say all three worked well and Mrs Harley was pleased to pass them. Thursday and Friday were spent around camp and the village, all of us going on a tour of the wood factory next to us. They had kindly given us plenty of fire wood, and make, amongst other things, tent poles and pegs. We broke camp early Saturday and were back in Bere by 1.30 pm tired but dry! Our thanks to all the girls who make it such a pleasant camp for Carol and I.

Our Coffee Morning held on June 9th was a great disappointment. We made a profit of just over £26 to be shared between Guides and Brownies. Our thanks to those who came and supported us.

The girls have all taken home letters giving dates of future events but remember to come along to our end of term bar-b-que on the Sports field.

100 YEARS AGO From the Parish Magazine for July 1890
CONCERT
The last winter was a very dull one in the way of concerts and other evening entertainments. The reason why this was so is still fresh in our memories. Except the Foresters’ dinner and a Primrose concert at Philliols, there had been nothing in the way of amusement to enliven the village until the 28th of May, when Mr Guest very kindly provided us with a most enjoyable evening in the shape of a free concert.
It is needless to say that the room was full. There was a crowded audience, and although many of the performances called forth most enthusiastic applause and laughter, yet the plaudits and encores were kept within reasonable and civilized bounds. Mr Guest had procured the aid of Mr Stanley Hayter, who is a host in himself. He sang as many as nine songs. We are glad he does not live in Bere Regis, as too much laughter is proverbially said to encourage obesity. The other performers were the Countess of Romney, Mr Arthur Guest, Mrs Johnson, the Rev. O P Cambridge, Mr R Cambridge, Miss G Lys, the Rev. C F Sweet and MrsSweet, Mr and Mrs Jenkins, Mr Tozer, Mr Hiram House, and last, but not least, Mr Guest himself. At the close of the evening, hearty cheers were given by way of thanks to Mr Guest, and the services of those whose combined efforts had rendered the evening so successful were acknowledged in a similar fashion.

RAGAMUFFINS PLAYGROUP
To help with our fundraising (and because it’s good for the environment) we now have an aluminum recycling point at playschool. If you could save your aluminum foil, milk bottle tops, drinks cans etc. we would be very grateful.
If you have difficulty getting them to playschool please phone me, Helen, on 471059 and I’ll come and collect them. Remember, aluminum won’t stick to a magnet!
The interior of the playschool building has now been transformed to produce a larger room for the children to play in. The building work has taken up most of our money so we will be having a big fundraising campaign this year which we hope you will support — especially you playgroup mums and dads — watch this space!
Lastly, due to an increased demand for spaces we are opening a fifth morning as of September 1990, so if anyone hasn’t put their child on the waiting list and wishes to do so, phone Sue on 46165.

AUTUMN LEAVES
Forty members and friends enjoyed a wonder Summer Outing Tour to see the huge selection of shoes of all ages at Clarkes Shoe Museum at Street, and many members managed to buy shoes and slippers at the various shops in the town. We then had a superb evening meal at Lydlinch. All in all a very successful and happy tour.
Our next meeting is an OPEN DAY with Rose Competition, Exhibition of Teddy Bears, and a Competition for Brooches to be judged by the public. Stalls, Raffle etc. Please bring your friends and neighbours.

BERE REGIS SPORTS CLUB
Club Report
Old arch-rivals Marnhull met with 1st eleven at the BRACA, Plainant Park against a Bere Regis seeking to strengthen their average in Division Two. Batting first Bere reached a comfortable 60 for 2 with 25 overs left, then a dramatic collapse came about and the side slumped to 100 all out, Russell Hewitt topped the scores with 21. After tea Marnhull started to gain any patience, but with a rising pitch and variable bounce they soon fell to 78 for 8 which left the match balanced on a knife-edge, each of the final overs yielded the required two or three runs an over. With ten needed off the last two overs, a four was hit and two singles scampered, the away side were comparatively safe. But a “kamakaze” run to the offside and quick thinking by Lyndon “No Byes” White threw the ball to the non-striking end — end of story. A victory claimed, the first in many a year.
Against Dowhead a similar start was affected reaching 74 for 2 then a collapse to 111
all out, followed, Reg Fripp topping the scores with 39 on a day when runs were never easy. Downhead made a bad start and Bere’s bowlers were rampant making them 27 for 5 then a steady partnership took them to the edge of victory then another collapse and were bowled out for 90.

The team’s unbeaten record was took to neighbours Wool with a strangely depleted squad, but spirits were high and a remarkable start was brought about by stand in Captain Alan “Barnes Wallis” Green who took 5 wickets in 17 balls, and Wool were reduced to 16 for 6, then a wicked change of luck came and Wool consolidated sensibly with the aid of loose bowling and rode their luck with a seventh wicket stand of 96 saw them to 149 for 9. Batting was not easy on the “death track” for Bere who faced an ordeal on a strip of damp grass resembling a wicket and short bowling, perhaps the lack of batsmen contributed to their downfall and they ended the day at 58 all out.

2ND TEAM

The annual friendly against Ibberton provided an eye opening yet entertaining day in the foothills of Bulbarrow. The second XI who batted first reached 140 for 8, Herbie “Boys” Swann carried his bat (on and off the pitch) through a side full of promise. Several players reached double figures, none so than Rob White who hit a swift, calypso 28 not out, full of boundaries and running, certain to climb the order next time out. He didn’t fair well with the ball though, the home team started off at five an over, and got to 100 for 3, then the wily Duffy “comeback” Pearce struck with three wickets in the middle order and Herbie Swann filling the all rounder spot, Ibberton achieved the target with 8 balls to spare, their local Hollywood resident Mick Robertson hitting 33 not out.

A further established friendly followed against Wiltshire Wanderers and during a tired game the visitors reached a slow 98 for 7, Harvey “Spin King” Nunn taking 4 for 37. Bere faltered in their reply, Simon Walker top scoring with a big six on his way to 26, they were all out for 91. A return to league action followed against Portland Red Triangle, and the visitors started steadily, playing and missing frequently, and after some careful high order batting they hit 95, once again Harvey Nunn tweaked well taking 5-32. A disastrous start from Bere followed in chasing a total which should have been a formality, they slumped to 43 for 8, then old hands Reg Fripp and Harvey Nunn (24 not out) got together and took the home side close, but nothing could stop a 10 run defeat.

A friendly against local raconteur John Mason and his Poole Con Club side brought a glut of runs for Bere, no less than 6 batsmen reaching double figures with Rob White (34 not out) retiring because he was fed up, this added to this party atmosphere when Bere hit 189. Bere’s bowlers were too much for the conservative cricketers and they succumbed to 58 all out.

On 2nd June the club held an extremely successful six-a-side tournament, with 41 teams taking part. There were hopes of local success with Bere Regis B who progressed with ease to the semi finals and met eventual winners Branksome Railway and lost to a solitary corner. The finalists Billy’s Boots and Branksome who came from behind to win by two points.

Finally congratulations to local boy Chris Orman who toured with the County Under 12 side in the Channel Islands earlier in June. And just for good measure, a week later he wrote his name in the history books and went on tour to France with Sandford Middle School. It was the first recognised trip by an English School to play cricket in France. Hopefully a return trip will be possible, for Bere’s promising demon left arm bowler.
